Steps to Becoming a Certified IHB Manufacturer

1. Manufacturer registers with the Department and a certificate of registration is issued.
2. Manufacturer sends written request for certification inspection to TDLR.
3. Manufacturer selects an approved design review agency (DRA) and submits plans and manual to DRA for approval.
4. DRA approves plans and manual and forwards 1 copy to TDLR, 1 copy to the mfg, and keeps 1 copy for their files.
5. Inspection is scheduled, TDLR performs pre-certification review, submits report to mfg and DRA.
6. Inspection is performed.
7. Manufacturer is ready for certification.
8. Deviation report is issued to manufacturer.
9. Deviations corrected?
   - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
   - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
10. Manufacturer is certified? (Questions 9 and 10 are repeated for clarity)
    - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
    - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
11. Manufacturer is certified? (Question 9 or 10 repeated)
    - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
    - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
12. Manufacturer is eligible to purchase Texas decals.

---

Steps to Becoming a Certified IHB Manufacturer

- Manufacture registers with the Department and a certificate of registration is issued.
- Manufacturer sends written request for certification inspection to TDLR.
- Manufacturer selects an approved design review agency (DRA) and submits plans and manual to DRA for approval.
- DRA approves plans and manual and forwards 1 copy to TDLR, 1 copy to the mfg, and keeps 1 copy for their files.
- Inspection is scheduled, TDLR performs pre-certification review, submits report to mfg and DRA.
- Inspection is performed.
- Manufacturer is ready for certification.
- Deviation report is issued to manufacturer.
- Deviations corrected?
  - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
  - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
- Manufacturer is certified? (Questions 9 and 10 are repeated for clarity)
  - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
  - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
- Manufacturer is eligible to purchase Texas decals.

---

Steps to Becoming a Certified IHB Manufacturer

1. Manufacturer registers with the Department and a certificate of registration is issued.
2. Manufacturer sends written request for certification inspection to TDLR.
3. Manufacturer selects an approved design review agency (DRA) and submits plans and manual to DRA for approval.
4. DRA approves plans and manual and forwards 1 copy to TDLR, 1 copy to the mfg, and keeps 1 copy for their files.
5. Inspection is scheduled, TDLR performs pre-certification review, submits report to mfg and DRA.
6. Inspection is performed.
7. Manufacturer is ready for certification.
8. Deviation report is issued to manufacturer.
9. Deviations corrected?
   - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
   - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
10. Manufacturer is certified? (Questions 9 and 10 are repeated for clarity)
    - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
    - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
11. Manufacturer is eligible to purchase Texas decals.

---

Steps to Becoming a Certified IHB Manufacturer

- Manufacture registers with the Department and a certificate of registration is issued.
- Manufacturer sends written request for certification inspection to TDLR.
- Manufacturer selects an approved design review agency (DRA) and submits plans and manual to DRA for approval.
- DRA approves plans and manual and forwards 1 copy to TDLR, 1 copy to the mfg, and keeps 1 copy for their files.
- Inspection is scheduled, TDLR performs pre-certification review, submits report to mfg and DRA.
- Inspection is performed.
- Manufacturer is ready for certification.
- Deviation report is issued to manufacturer.
- Deviations corrected?
  - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
  - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
- Manufacturer is certified? (Questions 9 and 10 are repeated for clarity)
  - NO: Manufacturer is not certified.
  - YES: Manufacturer is certified and added to certified list.
- Manufacturer is eligible to purchase Texas decals.